FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

‘Flagler Fall Outreach’ adds offerings, brings a full complement of social services providers to Cattleman’s Hall

October 10, 2023 – Flagler County Health and Human Services Department to make additions to the offerings for its “Flagler Fall Outreach,” which includes all manner of social services providers who will have free information, as well as immediate assistance with things like free food and haircuts. Flagler Cares, a regular participant, will have Flu shots and COVID-19 shots available.

The event will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. on October 20 at Cattleman’s Hall at the Fairgrounds.

“There are times when people slip through the cracks for no other reason than they are unsure where to go for help. This is the place to be,” said Health and Human Services Director Joseph Hegedus. “It is a great benefit to have these shots available to those who want them, especially at this time of year. Cold and flu season is upon us.”

In addition to Health and Human Services, the following agencies/services will be available:

- Grace Food Pantry
- Flagler County Free Clinic
- Family Life Center (domestic abuse, sexual assault)
- Daytona State Fresh Start Program (free transition program)
- Flagler OARS (Open Arms Recovery Services)
- Flagler Cares
- Early Learning Coalition
- Volusia/Flagler Coalition for the Homeless
- DCF/SNAP (food assistance)
- Flagler County SHIP
- Daytona State College TRiO
- Care Connect +
- Changing Homelessness
- North Florida Community Action
